Brief Profiles of Our Kingsmen/NFL Coach Guests

Mike Sheppard, Class of 1973 was a member of CLU's 1971 NAIA National Championship Team and was chosen "Outstanding Lineman" in the championship game. He had 60 catches for 956 yards and seven touchdowns his final two years, earned 1971 and 1972 All District III honors and was named to the 1972 All-Lutheran College Team. He was elected to Cal Lutheran's Hall of Fame in 2008.

Mike has spent 38 years in coaching since graduating from Cal Lutheran, 19 years in colleges and another 19 years in the National Football League, retiring from the Jacksonville Jaguars just this last year. During all of these years of coaching football, his wife Cathie has been by his side.

Rod Marinelli began his life in football as an undergraduate at Utah in 1968, where he played offensive and defensive tackle. After military service in Vietnam, he attended Cal Lutheran with a physical education major, and was also a member of Bob Shoup's legendary 1971 NAIA National Championship team on which he was team captain and National Association of Intercollegiate Athletes (NAIA) All-America offensive tackle. Rod and his wife, Barbara, met during his years at Cal Lutheran.

Rod has spent 40 years in coaching, 22 years in high school and college football, and another 18 years in professional ball in the NFL. Prior to his latest challenge as Defensive Line Coach of the Dallas Cowboys, which began this year, he was with the Chicago Bears. In his three years in the Windy City, the Bears twice ranked in the top10 in total defense and in the top 5 in defensive takeaways, producing 44 defensive takeaways in 2012 as opposed to 16 in Dallas.

The Beginnings

tice in the bus affectionately called “The White Tornado” and driven by Norm Denison, was an adventure in survival in and of itself.

While the first team began its inaugural season with no home field, Orville Dahl, Bob Shoup, and representatives from the Los Angeles Times, were able to attract a new NFL team, the Dallas Cowboys, to the campus for their summer camp. Working with the Cowboys, the University was able to fast track the development of better locker room and training facilities as well as the creation of the first home field and adjacent practice fields on the north campus. For the next 26 years these two organizations, the CLU Kingsmen, and the Dallas Cowboys, grew into very competitive and nationally recognized teams. Each team reached the pinnacle of

By George Engdahl

When Richard Pederson, the farmer who owned the land on which CLU was developed, responded to Orville Dahl’s, CLU’s first president, knock on his door, in 1957, he said “I have been expecting you.” In providing the land, Pederson’s goal was simple: “I want to provide youth with the benefits of a Christian education in a day when spiritual values may well decide the course of history.” Since that time CLU has never wavered. Expecting great things has always been at the core of CLU and it has remained steadfast in defining and being faithful to its spiritual values.

Orville Dahl wasted little time in making the development of a first class athletic program a high priority in CLU’s first year. He hired a visionary athletic director, Luther Schwich, and then set about the task of recruiting Coach Shoup as the University’s founding football coach. Coach Shoup in turn brought with him Don Garrison, who was not only a successful and charismatic coach in his own right, but like Shoup a person of deep personal faith. The Shoup’s (Bob and Helen) arrived on the campus in the spring of 1962 and immediately set about the task of recruiting the first football team. Along the way he recruited a couple of faculty members, James Kallas, and Robert Hage to help him. Hague was also a Dean at the college. Both of these men became legends in their own right with regard to the development of the football program and the academic tradition of the University.

In the fall of 1962 the first scraggy recruits showed up. There were no fields on which to practice. The gym was under construction, so Beta Hall, the men’s residence hall at the time, served as the locker room until Mountclef Hall was finished that same fall. We started with two a days. There was no hot water in the residence hall. The practice field was a small grassy area located where Alumni House (the Pederson home) is now located. Eventually we were able to practice at Camarillo High School. Getting to praccompetition by winning their own versions of the national championship. The Cowboys helped put the city of Dallas on the map, and Kingsmen football helped to promote and develop brand identity for this new fledgling university in the southwest. Tom Landry was a man of faith and high spiritual values as was coach Shoup and coach Garrison. In fact the “Letterman’s Club” as such organizations were called in those days, was named Chi Alpha Sigma, “Christians, Athletes, Scholars.” Perhaps Chi Alpha Sigma can become a part of the foundation, history and tradition of The 5th Quarter.

The first season (1962) was the launching of the CLU football program. It was a bare bones program. There was no nickname or fight song. Facilities were limited at best. There was no home field, or a strong student and community following. Those things were being developed on the fly, or sometime in the future. However, in the great CLU tradition, players, coaches and students didn’t know what they didn’t have. The team’s 1962 record 3-4, wasn’t as important as commitment and dedication of those first players and coaches. Most of the players came from very competitive high schools and community college programs. They were used to winning and having great facilities, traditions, a fight song, a band and cheerleaders backed by a large and faithful student body that had come to the same home field for years. In 1962 neither the Cowboys nor the Kingsmen had any of those amenities, but it didn’t matter. CLU players and those students and faculty were affectionately called pioneers. They pioneered. That’s what they did. They laid the groundwork, they had high expectations and they established the mantra for a winning tradition that continues to this day.

The Year that Changed the World

The sixties followed the innocence of the fifties, and Cal Lutheran opened its doors to face realities and confrontations and exposures that would create a whole new paradigm shift. During the year of 1963, we saw the beginning of the civil rights movement and the assassination of John Kennedy, the emergence of the Beatles and the war in Vietnam. This was also the first winning year of California Lutheran football and the year that the Dallas Cowboys moved to Cal Lutheran as the home of their Summer Training Camp. From this first foundational group of players and coaches, and over twenty-five years of exposure to the very best of professional football skills and training methodology in the Dallas Cowboys, Cal Lutheran's winning football tradition was born.

TILE INSTITUTE of AMERICA

Congratulations on the development of the "5th Quarter Football Club", for the enjoyment of the Football Teams (Past & Present), Parents and all the Fans, who have a love of California Lutheran University.

Judy & Jerry Halweg have donated to CLC, now CLU, because we were asked, by great people, at our Alma Mater, like Coaches Shoup, Squires and McEnroe.

A person did not have to be a football player for their talents and gifts to be received, loved and sincerely appreciated. We enjoyed employing many of the past football players over the decades, each year, at our annual tile seminars. The men expressed their appreciation and thus became like sons to us.

We want to thank Steve Bogan, for his help, with the design of the mural.

We wish our current Kingsmen much success, in the coming year and enjoyment in our new William Rolland stadium.

Coaches, Coaches, Coaches...

From the very inception of Cal Lutheran's football program, our legendary Coach Bob Shoup established a strong foundation for coaching built upon the values and characteristics that he had absorbed from his parents, his mentors and his faith. These have seemingly endured through his players and their attraction to and application of these "lessons of life" in their own coaching careers.

- This foundation is based upon integrity; respecting each players interests, life and abilities and expecting this same kind of integrity from each player themselves.
- It is based upon gratitude; being thankful for the life you have been given by God.
- Finally, it is based upon applying yourself diligently towards your interests and your dreams through hard work, discipline, courage, passion, intelligence and a respect for others.

BOB SHOUP MIKE SHEPPARD ROD MARINELLI JAKE CLAIBORNE DAVE ARANDA STEVE BOGAN BEN McENROE

When a coach passes on to his players his own "lessons of life" so that they make it a part of their lives, this is the key to finding happiness and success and making meaningful contributions.

The 5th Quarter Football Club, as part of our quest to honor our Kingsmen traditions, has been trying to find, track, contact and develop a list of every football player from CLU that went into coaching. The few examples above are representative of over 170 CLU football players who have followed their playing years with coaching...and the list is growing. Remarkable!

MARK CHRISTIANSON CALLS THE CADENCE

The Mystique of The Blue Slippers

By John Leubtow

Superstition and ritual in sports is found in all sports venues. It is generally something initially developed in hindsight, almost by accident and then called upon in future events. Such superstitions arise when an athlete or team has an exceptional performance and then tries to establish "cause and effect" by trying to link any odd or unusual circumstances at the time with the performance breakthrough itself. After this link is made in the mind of the athlete or athletes, through visualization or guided imagery, which today is the very basis of sports psychology, the athlete or athletes call upon this "mojo" before each competition.

The ritual mystique of the Blue Slippers at then California Lutheran College began early in the 1964 season when our three-year-old football program reached its lowest ebb. Going in to the season, the young Kingsmen had won eight and lost eight after two seasons of suspect competition. Now, after a stunning 13-8 win over La Verne College, CLC was in the midst of a depressing losing streak. We lost to Occidental 28-7, were blanked by Southern Utah 26-0 and humiliated by Claremont- Mudd 28-13.

The next game was to be our longest road trip to play a very tough Colorado College team, and it was their homecoming game. In early October, the team flew into Colorado Springs and was met by an old city transit bus. We were taken to the edge of town to a very tired, single-story motel. The extra bags were put in the garage storage area among beat-up furniture, lost-and-found articles and miscellaneous hotel supplies. It had been a very long day, and we were tired and did not have much spirit or enthusiasm. We had eaten on the plane so the next order of business was to get back on the bus and go five miles downtown where the campus was located for a practice session. Many players had to stand on the crowded bus.

The college was on a beautiful site and the leaves had begun to change on the trees. We got off the bus below campus at the stadium field level in our game uniforms. The air was crisp and clean. As we began to loosen up and go through a light practice, our spirits began to rise and a vocal camaraderie began to assert itself. We were not intimidated but were like school kids on an outing.

This scene was then overshadowed from above with band music and cheers. Colorado College was having its homecoming pep rally. Clearly we could hear from the PA system that "...this team from California is in the midst of a losing streak and we have beaten them before and we expect them to be an easy opponent." With that, we Kingsmen began to shout and cheer and the entire Colorado College student body and alumni came over to the edge of the stadium to see what was going on.

The next day was fabulous. Sunny, but cool. We cleaned out our rooms, loaded up our gear and got on the bus to go to the college to tape and dress for the game. That Saturday we controlled the Colorado College gridiron, and as we found out after our victory, the game was recorded for local television to be played that evening. For me personally it was my best single game at Cal Lutheran, with over 120 yards rushing, a long punt return and one touchdown. The final score was 29-6. The line of John Paris, Fred Kemp, Jim Tschida, Cary Washburn, Roger Young and Jerry Palmquist, and Safety / Wide Receiver Skip Mooney and others was stunning. Everything went right. The holes were there for us on offense and not for Colorado on Defense. After the losing games we experienced prior to this game and as history has shown, this was the turning point in our team's confidence and morale and set the stage for the Blue Slippers and the beginning of multiple years of winning seasons, national rankings and a national championship.

That Saturday evening some of us on the team found a "local watering hole" for a little "imbibing" and to watch ourselves on TV. Although we discovered that we were not so welcome sitting there imbibing and cheering ourselves on as we "devoured the locals", but, fear not, for when you enter an establishment with "the big boys"...nobody bothers you.

The next morning as we boarded the bus to depart...the Blue Slippers...entered our lives. We were all seated and ready to leave when Coach Shoup and Coach Garrison entered the bus laughing. Standing in front of the bus, Coach Shoup honored us with accolades about his pleasure with the victory and then he held up this scummy, dirty, disgusting old pair of women's slippers and told us the cleaning woman had found them in my room and wanted to return them to me. Everybody laughed, but with this bit of humorous injection from the coaches and the joy of a great upset victory under our belts, the appearance of the Blue Slippers became identified with a magic moment in our lives...a magic performance, and I became "the keeper of the Blue Slippers" until 1967.

The next week, CLC routed George Fox 59-0. We then won 33-9 over Cal Tech and 14-8 over a very tough Cal State team. The following week, we went to Pomona but the slippers stayed home and we lost 14-8. The legend began. The last game was our Homecoming, and we beat UC Riverside 7-0. After that for some strange reason they became like a "mystical good luck charm", even being hung up in the locker room with a white shoelace for players to touch or give homage to at game time. Then suddenly, they mysteriously vanished.

During the next 10 years, CLU won eight state championships and a national title in 1971. In 1975 the CLU Kingsmen were the #1 rated team in both the NAIA Division II and the NCAA Division III, and even today we virtually control our conference and are nationally ranked.

POSTSCRIPT

The Blue Slippers "good luck symbol" has been with the Kingsmen ever since they were found. Although no one is ready to "bet the farm" that they hold a mysterious power that transformed the Kingsmen into the powerhouse they have become, no one is also willing to question this possibility.

The legend will continue...

The Tradition Continues

Coach McEnroe

In April 2007, Ben McEnroe (Class of '93) became the first alumni football coach to lead the Kingsmen. One of the primary goals McEnroe set for the program was to embrace the rich history and tradition of CLC/CLU football. Alumni players are welcomed inside the locker room before every game, and Coach Shoup addresses the team before the Homecoming contest, holding an undefeated record since the establishment of this tradition. At the conclusion of the 2007 football awards banquet, Coach Shoup presented Coach McEnroe with a "new" pair of Blue Slippers that the team has embraced, and the Kingsmen are 31-8 since the Slippers returned to the locker room.

The last six seasons have been the most successful in CLU's NCAA era. During that span, the Kingsmen have won 74% of their games, including five Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SCIAC) championships and the first four NCAA playoff appearances in school history. CLU has not lost a road game in the SCIAC since 2006, is 35-2 vs. the SCIAC since 2007, and is riding a 27 game conference winning streak.

In 2013, CLU will return 13 starters from the 2012 SCIAC championship squad, including preseason All-American Left Tackle Andrew Pankow and four All-SCIAC honorees. The offense returns eight starters, led by four returning starters on the massive Offensive Line (average size of returning starters: 6'3" 299 pounds) and SCIAC Newcomer of the Year for 2012, sophomore Tailback Romello Goodman. Defensively, watch #4 Christian Bradley, a versatile Linebacker who started games at Defensive End, Linebacker, and Safety as a freshman in 2012. The Kingsmen are ranked #14 in the Sporting News preseason poll and have been nationally ranked by d3football.com for 41 consecutive weeks.

The schedule this year features three teams in the first four games that appeared in the NCAA playoffs:

- The home opener on September 14th against PLU.
- The Kingsmen host the University of Redlands in the annual Smudge Pot trophy game at William Rolland Stadium on October 12th at 7:00 pm, the first night game of the season.
- On Saturday, October 19th, CLU plays host to Claremont-Mudd-Scripps in the annual Homecoming tilt.

Alma Mater

*Oh, summon your sons and daughters,
Your banners and flags unfold,
Call them to Alma Mater,
The violet and the gold,
California Lutheran,
College of our dreams,
Upon whose crested summits
Sunbeams dance and gleam.*

*Oh, summon your sons and daughters,
The 'circling hills enfold,
Near deep Pacific waters,
The violet and the gold.
Your love of freedom cherish,
Your love of truth prevails,
Your love of Christ merit,
Alma Mater, Hail! All Hail! All Hail!*

Hail The Kingsmen

*Hail Kinsmen! Hail Kingsmen!
Forwards into battle to the Kingsmen!
Roaring out again to meet the foe.
Stand and cheer as they appear.
Every loyal son will bid them go.
Throughout the land our loyal band
of Kingsmen raise thier colors high for all to see. So! Give your all today -
And once again we'll say -
It's victory for CLC.
Hail Kingsmen! Hail Kingsmen!
Fight on to victory.*

CLU Fight Song

Lyrics by: Zimmerman & Elmer Ramsey

*Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
On to victory show the C-L-U might!
Dig in and take that ball right down
the field again, send the foe into fright!
We're here right behind you and
our mind's made up to win!
So, Go! go! go! go!
Go and get the score and our spirits will soar!
Let's count down! 10, 9, 8, cast off!
7, 6, 5, get set! 4, 3, 2, blast off!
1, Go! and we are off to win the vict'ry today!*

The Davey Spurlock
FIGHTING HEART AWARD
2013

Having a "fighting heart" describes a person who faces adversity and failure but courageously and passionately casts off fear, doubt, and limiting beliefs, and then succeeds, giving others a sense of hope, optimism and accomplishment. Such behavior initiates sparks of passion in others in a world of uncertainty and inspires them to do the same.

At Cal Lutheran we first discovered such courage, inspiration and passion in the life of a student whose name we placed upon this honorable annual award of acknowledgement. His name was Davey Spurlock. He overcame overwhelming odds that threatened his life and future and yet he went on to accomplish exceptional achievements with grit, passion and purpose in both football and law.

I'm actually saving for my retirement.

A smart long-term plan for your future means more healthy, happy living, now.

At University Village Thousand Oaks, adding more to your retirement lifestyle means saving more, too. Rather than fluctuating costs and time-consuming chores, we offer on-site services designed to help you live better, for longer — housecleaning, multiple restaurant-style dining venues, all exterior and interior maintenance, wellness programs, transportation, 24-hour security and more. Plus, access to assisted living, skilled nursing care and memory support is always available, if you ever need it. The difference is, everything is included — all for a lot less than you might think.

Don't settle for less.

Call 1-800-887-4405 today to request your free cost comparison chart and see how much more you'll get out of life at University Village.

More Value.
Better Retirement.
