Speakers

Steve Hagen New York Jets

Hagen was a wide receiver at Cal-Lutheran from 1979-83, where he earned NAIA All-America honors as a senior. He earned a Bachelor of Arts in business. He was hired by the New York Jets after spending the previous four seasons as the tight ends coach for Cleveland. He also coached tight ends for the Cleveland Browns from 2000-03 before moving to quarterbacks coach in 2004. Prior to his work in the NFL, Hagen served as the head coach at Wartburg (Iowa) College in 1996, guiding the team to a 7-3 record, as the school ranked eighth in Division III in total offense. He moved on to be offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of California from 1999-2000. He spent two seasons at San Jose State University as offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator (1997-98).

Brothers; Steve and Mike Hagen

Mike Hagen Cleveland Browns

A Business Management graduate from California Lutheran, Mike was inducted into Cal Lutheran's Hall of Fame in 2007 and was enshrined in the Ventura County Sports Hall of Fame in 1998. A receiver at Cal Lutheran, Hagen earned Miller Brewing Company's Southern California Player of the Year and AFCA Kodak Division II All American Team in 1979 and was voted to NAIA All American 1st Team in 1978 and 1979, after setting single season and career receiving records for his university during those years. Bringing 27 years experience in the NFL in various executive and player personnel capacities, Hagen played a key role in evaluating and selecting talent resulting in Super Bowl teams - Atlanta (XXXIII), Washington (XXVI), Denver (XXII & XXIV), Dallas (XXII and XXIII). He has learned from icons such as Hall of Fame coach Tom Landry, Dan Reeves, and Joe Gibbs. Currently, Mike is a Senior Personnel Associate for the Cleveland Browns, dabbles in Real Estate and is a Strategic Consultant for Competitive Sports Analysis.

John Gilbert Luebtow Glass Sculptor - "Blue Slipper Guy"

John Gilbert Luebtow graduated with a BA from Cal Lutheran in 1966. Since his graduation he has additionally obtained two distinct MFAs from UCLA in ceramics and glass, becoming one of the most respected names in contemporary glass sculpture. Luebtow has devoted much of his career to teaching in Los Angeles and completing major commissions for public and private corporations including Hewlett Packard (HP), ARCO, American Airlines, NESTLE (Carnation), and SCRIPPS Research Institute. In terms of Cal Lutheran's football traditions, John's "aura" emerged in 1964 when the Kingsmen traveled to Colorado to face a very tough Colorado College. It was John's best game with Cal Lutheran winning 29-6. When the team was leaving after the game, the motel maid found a dusty, dirty old pair of women's blue slippers in John's room and this became "the mystical good luck charm" that set the stage for multiple years of winning seasons, national rankings and a national championship.

"We Few, We Happy Few, We Band of Brothers"

This notable passage is from William Shakespear's play, Henry V, Act IV, in which King Henry's cousin, Westmoreland, as the English troops were preparing for the Battle of Agincourt against the French, dismays that the English are highly outnumbered and that the French knights are bigger, more skilled and more heavily armoured. King Henry rises to the occasion and speaks inspirationally, "...the fewer men, the greater share of honor". ...and ... "We few, we happy few, we band of brothers" ...will be victorious and each year feast and remember. Through Henry's words and example, the English troops found "a reserve of courage" to deliver an extraordinary victory against all odds. This certainly sounds like Coach Shoup and the Kingsmen's tradition!

The Beginnings

tice in the bus affectionately called "The White Tornado" and driven by Norm Denison, was an adventure in survival in and of itself.

While the first team began its inaugural season with no home field, Orville Dahl, Bob Shoup, and representatives from the Los Angeles Times, were able to attract a new NFL team, the Dallas Cowboys, to the campus for their summer camp. Working with the Cowboys, the University was able to fast track the development of better locker room and training facilities as well as the creation of the first home field and adjacent practice fields on the north campus. For the next 26 years these two organizations, the CLU Kingsmen, and the Dallas Cowboys, grew into very competitive and nationally recognized teams. Each team reached the pinnacle of

By George Engdahl

When Richard Pederson, the farmer who owned the land on which CLU was developed, responded to Orville Dahl's, CLU's first president, knock on his door, in 1957, he said "I have been expecting you." In providing the land, Pederson's goal was simple: "I want to provide youth with the benefits of a Christian education in a day when spiritual values may well decide the course of history." Since that time CLU has never wavered. Expecting great things has always been at the core of CLU and it has remained steadfast in defining and being faithful to its spiritual values.

Orville Dahl wasted little time in making the development of a first class athletic program a high priority in CLU's first year. He hired a visionary athletic director, Luther Schwich, and then set about the task of recruiting Coach Shoup as the University's founding football coach. Coach Shoup in turn brought with him Don Garrison, who was not only a successful and charismatic coach in his own right, but like Shoup a person of deep personal faith. The Shoup's (Bob and Helen) arrived on the campus in the spring of 1962 and immediately set about the task of recruiting the first football team. Along the way he recruited a couple of faculty members, James Kallas, and Robert Hage to help him. Hage was also a Dean at the college. Both of these men became legends in their own right with regard to the development of the football program and the academic tradition of the University.

In the fall of 1962 the first scraggy recruits showed up. There were no fields on which to practice. The gym was under construction, so Beta Hall, the men's residence hall at the time, served as the locker room until Mountclef Hall was finished that same fall. We started with two a days. There was no hot water in the residence hall. The practice field was a small grassy area located where Alumni House (the Pederson home) is now located. Eventually we were able to practice at Camarillo High School. Getting to praccompetition by winning their own versions of the national championship. The Cowboys helped put the city of Dallas on the map, and Kingsmen football helped to promote and develop brand identity for this new fledgling university in the southwest. Tom Landry was a man of faith and high spiritual values as was coach Shoup and coach Garrison. In fact the "Letterman's Club" as such organizations were called in those days, was named Chi Alpha Sigma, "Christians, Athletes, Scholars." Perhaps Chi Alpha Sigma can become a part of the foundation, history and tradition of The 5th Quarter.

The first season (1962) was the launching of the CLU football program. It was a bare bones program. There was no nickname or fight song. Facilities were limited at best. There was no home field, or a strong student and community following. Those things were being developed on the fly, or sometime in the future. However, in the great CLU tradition, players, coaches and students didn't know what they didn't have. The team's 1962 record 3-4, wasn't as important as commitment and dedication of those first players and coaches. Most of the players came from very competitive high schools and community college programs. They were used to winning and having great facilities, traditions, a fight song, a band and cheerleaders backed by a large and faithful student body that had come to the same home field for years. In 1962 neither the Cowboys nor the Kingsmen had any of those amenities, but it didn't matter. CLU players and those students and faculty were affectionately called pioneers. They pioneered. That's what they did. They laid the groundwork, they had high expectations and they established the mantra for a winning tradition that continues to this day.

TILE INSTITUTE of AMERICA

Congratulations on the development of the "5th Quarter Football Club", for the enjoyment of the Football Teams (Past & Present), Parents and all the Fans, who have a love of California Lutheran University.

Judy & Jerry Halweg have donated to CLC, now CLU, because we were asked, by great people, at our Alma Mater, like Coaches Shoup, Squires and McEnroe.

A person did not have to be a football player for their talents and gifts to be received, loved and sincerely appreciated. We enjoyed employing many of the past football players over the decades, each year, at our annual tile seminars. The men expressed their appreciation and thus became like sons to us.

We want to thank Steve Bogan, for his help, with the design of the mural.

We wish our current Kingsmen much success, in the coming year and enjoyment in our new William Rolland stadium.

CLU – A History & Culture That Has Fostered Exceptional Winning Percentages & Exeptional Coaching

The history of California Lutheran Kingsmen football began with our legendary Coach, Bob Shoup, who established a strong foundation for winning and for coaching built upon the values and characteristics fostered by his parents, his mentors and his faith. This approach towards coaching and life among our own “band of brothers” has continued to endue in our players and in many players that have taken these lessons into their own coaching careers.

Here are just a few out of over 200 Kingsmen coaches...and Band of Brothers.

The Mystique of The Blue Slippers

By John Leubtow

Superstition and ritual in sports is found in all sports venues. It is generally something initially developed in hindsight, almost by accident and then called upon in future events. Such superstitions arise when an athlete or team has an exceptional performance and then tries to establish "cause and effect" by trying to link any odd or unusual circumstances at the time with the performance breakthrough itself. After this link is made in the mind of the athlete or athletes, through visualization or guided imagery, which today is the very basis of sports psychology, the athlete or athletes call upon this "mojo" before each competition.

The ritual mystique of the Blue Slippers at then California Lutheran College began early in the 1964 season when our three-year-old football program reached its lowest ebb. Going in to the season, the young Kingsmen had won eight and lost eight after two seasons of suspect competition. Now, after a stunning 13-8 win over La Verne College, CLC was in the midst of a depressing losing streak.

We lost to Occidental 28-7, were blanked by Southern Utah 26-0 and humiliated by Claremont-Mudd 28-13.

The next game was to be our longest road trip to play a very tough Colorado College team, and it was their homecoming game. In early October, the team flew into Colorado Springs and was met by an old city transit bus. We were taken to the edge of town to a very tired, single-story motel. The extra bags were put in the garage storage area among beat-up furniture, lost-and-found articles and miscellaneous hotel supplies. It had been a very long day, and we were tired and did not have much spirit or enthusiasm. We had eaten on the plane so the next order of business was to get back on the bus and go five miles downtown where the campus was located for a practice session. Many players had to stand on the crowded bus.

The college was on a beautiful site and the leaves had begun to change on the trees. We got off the bus below campus at the stadium field level in our game uniforms. The air was crisp and clean. As we began to loosen up and go through a light practice, our spirits began to rise and a vocal camaraderie began to assert itself. We were not intimidated but were like school kids on an outing.

This scene was then overshadowed from above with band music and cheers. Colorado College was having its homecoming pep rally. Clearly we could hear from the PA system that "...this team from California is in the midst of a losing streak and we have beaten them before and we expect them to be an easy opponent." With that, we Kingsmen began to shout and cheer and the entire Colorado College student body and alumni came over to the edge of the stadium to see what was going on.

The next day was fabulous. Sunny, but cool. We cleaned out our rooms, loaded up our gear and got on the bus to go to the college to tape and dress for the game. That Saturday we controlled the Colorado College gridiron, and as we found out after our victory, the game was recorded for local television to be played that evening. For me personally it was my best single game at Cal Lutheran, with over 120 yards rushing, a long punt return and one touchdown. The final score was 29-6. The line of John Paris, Fred Kemp, Jim Tschida, Cary Washburn, Roger Young and Jerry Palmquist, and Safety / Wide Receiver Skip Mooney and others was stunning. Everything went right. The holes were there for us on offense and not for Colorado on Defense. After the losing games we experienced prior to this game and as history has shown, this was the turning point in our team's confidence and morale and set the stage for the Blue Slippers and the beginning of multiple years of winning seasons, national rankings and a national championship.

That Saturday evening some of us on the team found a "local watering hole" for a little "imbibing" and to watch ourselves on TV. Although we discovered that we were not so welcome sitting there imbibing and cheering ourselves on as we "devoured the locals", but, fear not, for when you enter an establishment with "the big boys"...nobody bothers you.

The next morning as we boarded the bus to depart...the Blue Slippers...entered our lives. We were all seated and ready to leave when Coach Shoup and Coach Garrison entered the bus laughing. Standing in front of the bus, Coach Shoup honored us with accolades about his pleasure with the victory and then he held up this scummy, dirty, disgusting old pair of women's slippers and told us the cleaning woman had found them in my room and wanted to return them to me. Everybody laughed, but with this bit of humorous injection from the coaches and the joy of a great upset victory under our belts, the appearance of the Blue Slippers became identified with a magic moment in our lives...a magic performance, and I became "the keeper of the Blue Slippers" until 1967.

The next week, CLC routed George Fox 59-0. We then won 33-9 over Cal Tech and 14-8 over a very tough Cal State team. The following week, we went to Pomona but the slippers stayed home and we lost 14-8. The legend began. The last game was our Homecoming, and we beat UC Riverside 7-0. After that for some strange reason they became like a "mystical good luck charm", even being hung up in the locker room with a white shoelace for players to touch or give homage to at game time. Then suddenly, they mysteriously vanished.

During the next 10 years, CLU won eight state championships and a national title in 1971. In 1975 the CLU Kingsmen were the #1 rated team in both the NAIA Division II and the NCAA Division III, and even today we virtually control our conference and are nationally ranked.

POSTSCRIPT

The Blue Slippers "good luck symbol" has been with the Kingsmen ever since they were found. Although no one is ready to "bet the farm" that they hold a mysterious power that transformed the Kingsmen into the powerhouse they have become, no one is also willing to question this possibility.

The legend will continue...

The Tradition Continues

Coach McEnroe

In April 2007, Ben McEnroe (Class of '93) became the first alumni football coach to lead the Kingsmen. One of the primary goals McEnroe set for the program was to embrace the rich history and tradition of CLC/CLU football. Alumni players are welcomed inside the locker room before every game, and Coach Shoup addresses the team before the Homecoming contest, holding an undefeated record since the establishment of this tradition. At the conclusion of the 2007 football awards banquet, Coach Shoup presented Coach McEnroe with a "new" pair of Blue Slippers that the team has embraced, and the Kingsmen have won approximately 75% of their games since the Slippers returned to the locker room.

The last seven seasons have been the most successful in CLU's NCAA era. During that span, the Kingsmen have won 74% of their games, including five Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SCIAC) championships and the first four NCAA playoff appearances in school history. CLU is 39-5 vs. the SCIAC since 2007, and has claimed four of the last five conference titles.

In 2014, CLU will field one of the youngest teams in recent memory. The depth chart heading into training camp features a nice combination of youth and experience. Sophomore Quarterback David Rico (Dinuba, CA) will enter camp as the starter, having finished the season starting the final three contests, earning two victories and accounting for over 1,300 yards and 13 TDs in nine quarters of action. Rico's primary targets will include his former high school teammate and three year starter, Andrew Worthley, as well as experienced Juniors Sean Bellotti and Justin Bloom. The Offensive Line will feature three sophomores, a junior, and a senior as starters. Defensively, look for all-star Defensive End Anthony Monroe to lead the charge. Sophomore Linebacker Bryce Henderson gained valuable experience in 2013, and Sophomore Cornerback Logan Sanders started as a freshman before being slowed by injuries at the end of the season.

The schedule will be challenging for the young Kingsmen. They will open on the road at nationally-ranked Pacific Lutheran University on September 13th. The first home game of 2014 is the first game of a two-game series with Willamette University on September 20th. CLU will travel to defending SCIAC champion Redlands on October 11th for the annual Smudge Pot Trophy game. The schedule features five total home games, including Homecoming on October 8th and Senior Day on November 15th. Home night games are scheduled on October 25th vs. Chapman and November 8th vs. Occidental.

Alma Mater

Lyrics by: Orville Dahl Music by Rossini

Oh, summon your sons and daughters,
Your banners and flags unfold,
Call them to Alma Mater,
The violet and the gold,
California Lutheran,
College of our dreams,
Upon whose crested summits
Sunbeams dance and gleam.

Oh, summon your sons and daughters,
The 'circling hills enfold,
Near deep Pacific waters,
The violet and the gold.
Your love of freedom cherish,
Your love of truth prevails,
Your love of Christus merit,
Alma Mater, Hail! All Hail! All Hail!

Hail The Kingsmen

Hail Kingsmen! Hail Kingsmen!
Forward into battle go the Kingsmen!
Roaring out again to meet the foe.
Stand and cheer as they appear.
Every loyal son will bid them go.
Throughout the land our loyal band of Kingsmen raise their colors high for all to see. So! Give your all today -
And once again we'll say -
It's victory for CLU.
Hail Kingsmen! Hail Kingsmen!
Fight on to victory.

CLU Fight Song

Lyrics by: Robert Zimmerman & Elmer Ramsey

Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
On to victory show the C-L-U might!
Dig in and take that ball right down
the field again, send the foe into flight!
We're here right behind you and
our mind's made up to win!
So, go! go! go! go!
Go and get the score and our spirits will soar!
Let's count down! 10, 9, 8, cast off!
7, 6, 5, get set! 4, 3, 2, blast off!
Go! and we are off to win the vict'ry today!

The Davey Spurlock FIGHTING HEART AWARD 2013

Having a "fighting heart" describes a person who faces adversity and failure but courageously and passionately casts off fear, doubt, and limiting beliefs, and then succeeds, giving others a sense of hope, optimism and accomplishment. Such behavior initiates sparks of passion in others in a world of uncertainty and inspires them to do the same.

At Cal Lutheran we first discovered such courage, inspiration and passion in the life of a student whose name we placed upon this honorable annual award of acknowledgement. His name was Davey Spurlock. He overcame overwhelming odds that threatened his life and future and yet he went on to accomplish exceptional achievements with grit, passion and purpose in both football and law.

Salute to the 2011 Fighting Heart Award Winner Mike Cox.

Mr. Reliable is how his former Coach, Bob Shoup, refers to Mike Cox. He was a starter for four years in both football and baseball at Cal Lutheran from 1962 until 1966. He made no mental mistakes and was always prepared, never missing a practice or a game. He was on the "blue slipper team" ...a foundational player.

Mike Cox was awarded the Fighting Heart Award in 2011 because of his strength and Continuing courage in fighting a rare form of cancer in his throat, neck and on his tongue. After chemotherapy and radiation on these very sensitive tissues, with his devoted wife, Tony, applying the lotions to his burned tissues after each treatment, Mike had lost his voice and was reduced to taking his food through a stomach tube. Nevertheless, you can never count out the resolve of "a fighting heart". As in football, so too in life; Mike's voice has returned, he is eating normally again and...he has prevailed!

Mike Cox's Cal Lutheran Achievements:

3 sport letterman; Football (4) Baseball (3) Basketball (1yr freshman year)
Baseball MVP 1963 - batted .400.
Awarded Iron Man trophy for most minutes played on the 1965 football team
Eleven career interceptions
Graduated Cum Laude 3.3 GPA in Business Administration 1966

After Cal Lutheran:

Received MBA from the Wharton Business School at the University of Pennsylvania, 1974
Employed by various manufacturers of data storage software and hardware over the past 35 years in financial positions such as Division Controller, Corporate Controller, Director of Financial Planning and Analysis. Currently works for Quantum Corp. in Irvine, California.

Married to current wife Toni for 24 years. Mike and Toni have two sons from Mike's first marriage and 3 grand children.

THE 2014 SEASON - The Candy Man Cometh

WATCH FOR PLENTY OF TOUCHDOWNS
AND PLENTY OF CANDY

How sweet it is! When the Cal Lutheran football team scores, everybody's sweet tooth gets satisfied by Karsten Lundring, a 1965 graduate of Cal Lutheran who has supported Kingsmen football for more than 50 years. His tradition of hurling candy into the air when Cal Lutheran scores began over 30 years ago. "Cal Lutheran scored a touchdown and I had a pack of candy with me that I threw, and it's been a tradition ever since."
