Speakers

Steve Bogan

Steve Bogan grew up as a Lutheran and received a Bachelor of Arts in History Magna Cum Laude and played football under Coach Shoup at California Lutheran College. He received his Masters Degree in Theology from Fuller Theological Seminary and then went on to pursue 30 years of teaching in Comparative Religions, History, Economics and American Government.

He is also a very successful high school football coach, serving over 20 years as a head coach. His teams have won 11 league championships and made 5 trips to the Southern California CIF finals winning four of the five championship contests. His players have gone on to play at every level of post high school football, including the Big Sky, Mountain West, Pack 12 and the NFL.

He is very insightful and a great mentor to young people in understanding how important Christian values are in modeling a successful life.

Tim Hengst - Breakfast Speaker

Timothy C. Hengst graduated from Cal Lutheran (then CLC) in 1972 as an art major and was a starter at right tackle on the 1971 NAIA football championship team, one of his fondest memories.

He was accepted into John Hopkins University School of Medicine directly after graduating from Cal Lutheran from where he received his graduate degree in medical and biological illustration, after which he illustrated for Dr. Denton Colley at the Texas Heart Institute and served as Director of Photography and Audiovisual Communications. He joined the faculty in the graduate program at Johns Hopkins and served as production manager in the graphics and illustration division and assistant professor in the graduate program.

He was awarded the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Association of Medical Illustrators in 2013. He has also worked as consultant for a commercial multimedia firm.

In addition to medical illustration, he produces digital fine art using original photography and Adobe Photoshop. He has exhibited in numerous regional art shows.

In so many ways, Tim Hengst has truly proven himself to be worthy of being called "a Kingsmen". He has served on the CLU sports Hall of Fame founding committee, the Alumni Board and Board of Regents, been a full time faculty member since 2001 in Multimedia, was Interim Dean of the College 2005-07 and is Executive Director of the Kingsmen Shakespeare Festival, Chair of the Faculty, faculty mentor for CLU's golf and women's volleyball teams, a Freshmen Seminar Advisor, and member of the Victory Club. Tim also was rated 97.5% out of 5 points in student evaluations of him and his teaching and mentoring work at CLU...which is...an A+ rating.

When Tim was once asked what was the most important thing in his life, he answered, "God, with my wife Jeanne a very close second".

About the Cover

Coach Shoup talks with 1966 Team Captains Dave Regalado, Tim Roettger and Mike McLean, all great leaders. Great leaders don't set out to be leaders...they set out to make a difference. They inspire confidence in their teammates because it is never about the role - always about the goal. They indeed did make a difference:

DAVE REGALADO: FULLBACK, NAIA DISTRICT III FRST TEAM OFFENSE; HONARABLE MENTION, NAIA ALL-AMERICAN; HONORABLE MENTION, LITTLE COAST; ALL-LUTHERAN FIRST TEAM DEFENSE

TIM ROETTGER: LINEBACKER, NAIA DISTRICT III FIRST TEAM DEFENSE; ALL-LUTHERAN FIRST TEAM DEFENSE

MIKE MCLEAN: END NAIA DISTRICT III FIRST TEAM OFFENSE

Year of The Captains

This year's program is dedicated to the captains of the CLC / CLU football teams from the program's inception in 1962 to the present. God's blessing and congratulations to you all.

Football Team Captains are elected by vote of the players or appointed by the coaching staff from the offense, defense and special teams based on leadership on and off the field. Their role on the field is nothing more than representing the team during the coin toss. If they are on the field during a penalty, they are typically the ones who communicate with the referee about accepting or declining the penalty.

Cal Lutheran Has Become a West Coast “Cradle of Coaches”

The Cradle of Coaches is a nickname originally given to Miami University in Oxford, Ohio for producing many great Division I Football Coaches. Cal Lutheran has gained the same reputation and nickname as a lower division University that has produced and continues to produce outstanding football coaches in great numbers for all levels of this competitive sport, including high school, college and professional.

The coaches profiled on pages 6-8, are representative of the kinds of coaches that Cal Lutheran has produced and continues to be associated with. In fact, our own Coach Ben McEnroe is a prime example of the kind of coaches and how they apply themselves that have historically been produced through their nurturing at and through Cal Lutheran. It is the kind of coaching that teaches not only football skills, but values and purpose in life.

The Coaching Legacy from Cal Lu

Dave Aranda

Aranda graduated from Cal Lutheran in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in philosophy. In 2002, he earned his master's degree in interdisciplinary studies at Texas Tech.

Aranda spent two years as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at his alma mater, California Lutheran, where the Kingsmen led the conference in scoring defense and total defense. It was his second go-around with California Lutheran after serving as an assistant from 1996-99, while finishing his degree.

Dave Aranda returns for his third season as Wisconsin's defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach in 2015. Under Aranda's watch, Wisconsin's defense has allowed an average of 299.4 yards per game, ranking third among FBS programs over the last two seasons and trailing only Louisville (280.5) and Michigan State (282.9). The Badgers have allowed an average of 18.6 points per game over the last two seasons, the sixth-best mark in the FBS during that span.

Wisconsin also ranks No. 5 nationally in passing defense over the past two seasons at 184.6 yards allowed per game and No. 7 in rushing defense at 114.7 yards allowed per contest. The Badgers have allowed just 27 rushing touchdowns in the 27 games Aranda has coached.

Aranda spent the 2012 season at Utah State. As the defensive coordinator at USU, he oversaw an Aggies defense that ranked eighth in the country in scoring defense, allowing just 15.4 points per game.

During the 2011 season at Hawai'i, Aranda's defense led the Western Athletic Conference and was tied for 15th in the FBS in sacks with 35. In 2010, Aranda's Hawai'i defense led the nation in turnovers caused (38), while ranking second in the nation in interceptions (23) and ninth in fumbles recovered (15), as well as tying the school record for most defensive touchdowns with five.

Tim Lins '85, M.A. '94, Years at Cal Lutheran: 1981-1985

Tim Lins arrived at Cal Lutheran from Cerritos College in 1980 and made an immediate impact on the football field. At CLU, Lins was coached by Bob Shoup. "Bob was a master of the passing game," he said. "I learned a lot about the passing game with him." During the 1981 and 1982 seasons, Lins caught 77 passes, scored 12 touchdowns and racked up 974 yards. His efforts helped lead those teams to back-to-back NAIA District 3 Championships. Lins was named to the NAIA All-America First Team both years as a Kingsmen and is one of only three two-time NAIA All-America First Team selections in CLU history.

Tim has spent 27 years of his life in coaching high school football. After spending ten years at Encino Crespi, he moved to Coach at Moorpark High School at which he has now coached for 17 years and won over 100 games, taken Moorpark to the playoffs 13 times, including four trips to the CIF finals. He was also the first NFL-ABC7 High School Coach of the Week honoree this past year.

Tom Herman Cal Lutheran – '97, Wide Receiver – 1994-1997

He was an all-conference receiver at Cal Lutheran. How's this for love of the game? During his high school and college playing career, Herman had four shoulder surgeries and 13 knee surgeries, at one point doctors growing a piece of his cartilage in a lab to create enough of it to properly patch the joint, according to an ESPN.com story. Herman earned his B.S. degree in business administration from Cal Lutheran in 1997, where he graduated cum laude and was a Presidential Scholarship recipient. Herman received his masters degree in Education from Texas.

Tom's first coaching job was with Texas Lutheran as a Receivers Coach for $5,000.00, even sleeping in the locker room as a graduate assistant at the University of Texas at Austin, but has made a swift ascent up the coaching ladder with Texas State, Sam Houston State, Rice, Iowa and Ohio State University, leaving substantial improvements and reputation behind with every experience.

As Offensive Coordinator, his teams at OHIO State University averaged 44.1 points per game and this past year Ohio State won the Big Ten Championship.

2014 – RECIPIENT OF THE BROILES AWARD - Every year, 1,500 assistant coaches representing all 117 Division One college football programs vote on their peers in the world of college football, and the five Broyles Award finalists are chosen by the tally of these ballots. From these five, one is chosen and in 2014 it was Tom Herman.

Late in 2014, Tom Herman landed his "dream job" ...Head Coach at the University of Houston. He and wife Michelle have three children – a girl, Priya; and two sons, Maddock and Maverick.

Mike Sheppard '73

As a Kingsmen player, he was a member of CLU's 1971 NAIA National Championship Team and was chosen "Outstanding Lineman" in the championship game. He had 60 catches for 956 yards and seven touchdowns his final two years, earned 1971 and 1972 All District III honors and was named to the 1972 All-Lutheran College Team. He was elected to Cal Lutheran's Hall of Fame in 2008.

Mike has spent 38 years in coaching since leaving Cal Lutheran, 19 years in colleges and another 19 years in the National Football League. His college assignments included Kansas, Long Beach State, University of New Mexico and California. His professional coaching career has included offensive coordinator of the San Diego Chargers, the Buffalo Bills and the New Orleans Saints in 2005. He was the wide receivers coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 2007 to 2010, was hired by the Jacksonville Jaguars to replace Mike Shula as quarterbacks coach in 2011 and then was moved to wide receivers coach to replace fired coach Johnny Cox, retiring from the Jacksonville Jaguars just this last year.

During all of these years of coaching football, his wife Cathy has been by his side. He is presently a Vice President of the 5th Quarter.

Cory Undlin Cal Lutheran '94, MA '03, Player – '90-'94 Defensive Safety, All SCIAC Second Team 1993

Coach - Linebackers – '98-'99, Coach - Defensive Coordinator – 2000 -2001

Cory Undlin was Coach Ben McEnroe's teammate and roommate during his playing years with the Kingsmen. Then after his playing years at Cal Lutheran, he joined Cal Lutheran's defensive coaching staff for four years, then he accepted a graduate assistant coaching position at Fresno State under Coach Phil Hill who had been an Assistant Coach under Bill Belichick with the Cleveland Browns. This led to an Assistant Defensive Coaching position with Belichick and the New England Patriots in 2004 (the year they won Super Bowl XXXIX). This led to further opportunities with the Cleveland Browns as Defensive Quality Control Coach, then Defensive Backs Coach in 2009 and 2010. The very next year Undlin became the Denver Broncos defensive quality control coach and in the 2013-2014 season he reached the Super Bowl again, only this time serving as the head defensive backs coach. All of this success led to his most recent contract signing as Defensive Backs Coach with the Philadelphia Eagles...just this year of 2015.

LA Rams Training Moves to Cal Lutheran NFL team to build temporary facility, fields on campus

California Lutheran University has entered into an agreement with the Los Angeles Rams to allow the team to base its training operations on the university's Thousand Oaks campus for at least two years.

The Rams will pay for and put in two practice fields, a paved parking lot and temporary modular buildings containing offices, training areas and locker rooms on the northwest corner of the campus. They can use the area for the next two to five years while they wait for their permanent training facility to be built.

The facility at Cal Lutheran will be the home base for about 130 athletes, coaches, trainers and other staff members. Regular season practices will be held from September through January starting this year, and off-season activities will be based at the facility from March through July starting in 2017.

The Rams plan to offer opportunities to the Cal Lutheran community, including internships for students, while their operations are based on campus.

The city of Thousand Oaks has already approved construction of the fields and parking lot as part of Cal Lutheran's master plan, and the Rams will turn them over to the university after they depart. The Rams have applied to the city for permission to install the modular buildings and approval is pending.

While the Rams are based on campus, Cal Lutheran can use the parking lot during major events such as commencement. Cal Lutheran's athletic teams will use the fields after the team departs. The university will also be able to use infrastructure built by the Rams for future athletic facilities it plans to add.

The region stands to benefit economically as the Rams players, coaches and other employees shop, dine, buy homes and send their children to schools in the area.

"We are excited to partner with Cal Lutheran to use their exceptional campus as the temporary home for team facilities that will be outstanding for our players and football staff," said Los Angeles Rams Chief Operating Officer and Executive Vice President Kevin Demoff. "The Rams look forward to becoming an integral part of the Cal Lutheran and Thousand Oaks communities as we establish our roots in Southern California."

"We are thrilled to be part of the return of the Rams and NFL football to Los Angeles," said Cal Lutheran President Chris Kimball. "The Rams are investing in a major remaining part of our plans for the north campus and providing internships in a variety of fields to our students. It will be a great partnership."

The entrance to the facility will be off of Campus Drive, and the entire area will be enclosed in a fence. The facility will not be open to the public. The Rams will remove the temporary buildings and fencing when they leave.

The university has a long history of partnerships with high-level athletic teams. Cal Lutheran hosted the Dallas Cowboys' training camp from 1963 to 1989. The 2008 and 2012 U.S. Olympic men's water polo teams trained in Samuelson Aquatics Center. USA Team Handball, Los Angeles Lightning basketball and the Conejo Oaks collegiate summer baseball team have also held events on the campus.

The Beginnings

tice in the bus affectionately called “The White Tornado” and driven by Norm Denison, was an adventure in survival in and of itself.

While the first team began its inaugural season with no home field, Orville Dahl, Bob Shoup, and representatives from the Los Angeles Times, were able to attract a new NFL team, the Dallas Cowboys, to the campus for their summer camp. Working with the Cowboys, the University was able to fast track the development of better locker room and training facilities as well as the creation of the first home field and adjacent practice fields on the north campus. For the next 26 years these two organizations, the CLU Kingsmen, and the Dallas Cowboys, grew into very competitive and nationally recognized teams. Each team reached the pinnacle of

By George Engdahl

When Richard Pederson, the farmer who owned the land on which CLU was developed, responded to Orville Dahl’s, CLU’s first president, knock on his door, in 1957, he said “I have been expecting you.” In providing the land, Pederson’s goal was simple: “I want to provide youth with the benefits of a Christian education in a day when spiritual values may well decide the course of history.” Since that time CLU has never wavered. Expecting great things has always been at the core of CLU and it has remained steadfast in defining and being faithful to its spiritual values.

Orville Dahl wasted little time in making the development of a first class athletic program a high priority in CLU’s first year. He hired a visionary athletic director, Luther Schwich, and then set about the task of recruiting Coach Shoup as the University’s founding football coach. Coach Shoup in turn brought with him Don Garrison, who was not only a successful and charismatic coach in his own right, but like Shoup a person of deep personal faith. The Shoup’s (Bob and Helen) arrived on the campus in the spring of 1962 and immediately set about the task of recruiting the first football team. Along the way he recruited a couple of faculty members, James Kallas, and Robert Hage to help him. Hage was also a Dean at the college. Both of these men became legends in their own right with regard to the development of the football program and the academic tradition of the University.

In the fall of 1962 the first scraggy recruits showed up. There were no fields on which to practice. The gym was under construction, so Beta Hall, the men’s residence hall at the time, served as the locker room until Mountclef Hall was finished that same fall. We started with two a days. There was no hot water in the residence hall. The practice field was a small grassy area located where Alumni House (the Pederson home) is now located. Eventually we were able to practice at Camarillo High School. Getting to praccompetition by winning their own versions of the national championship. The Cowboys helped put the city of Dallas on the map, and Kingsmen football helped to promote and develop brand identity for this new fledgling university in the southwest. Tom Landry was a man of faith and high spiritual values as was coach Shoup and coach Garrison. In fact the “Letterman’s Club” as such organizations were called in those days, was named Chi Alpha Sigma, “Christians, Athletes, Scholars.” Perhaps Chi Alpha Sigma can become a part of the foundation, history and tradition of The 5th Quarter.

The first season (1962) was the launching of the CLU football program. It was a bare bones program. There was no nickname or fight song. Facilities were limited at best. There was no home field, or a strong student and community following. Those things were being developed on the fly, or sometime in the future. However, in the great CLU tradition, players, coaches and students didn’t know what they didn’t have. The team’s 1962 record 3-4, wasn’t as important as commitment and dedication of those first players and coaches. Most of the players came from very competitive high schools and community college programs. They were used to winning and having great facilities, traditions, a fight song, a band and cheerleaders backed by a large and faithful student body that had come to the same home field for years. In 1962 neither the Cowboys nor the Kingsmen had any of those amenities, but it didn’t matter. CLU players and those students and faculty were affectionately called pioneers. They pioneered. That’s what they did. They laid the groundwork, they had high expectations and they established the mantra for a winning tradition that continues to this day.

We want to thank Steve Bogan, for his help, with the design of the mural. We wish our current Kingsmen much success, in the coming year and enjoyment in our new William Rolland stadium.

A person did not have to be a football player for their talents and gifts to be received, loved and sincerely appreciated. We enjoyed employing many of the past football players over the decades, each year, at our annual tile seminars. The men expressed their appreciation and thus became like sons to us.

Congratulations on the development of the "5th Quarter Football Club", for the enjoyment of the Football Teams (Past, Present & Future), Parents and all the Fans, who have a love of California Lutheran University.

Judy & Jerry Halweg have donated to CLC, now CLU, because of our Love of CLU and we were asked, by great people, at our Alma Mater, like Coaches Shoup, Squires and McEnroe.

OUR MINISTRIES

COACHES Ministry: Coaches are the heart of FCA. Our philosophy in Coaches Ministry is to minister "to and through the coach" to see transformation. FCA ministers to coaches through Bible studies, prayer support, discipleship and mentoring, resources, outreach events and retreats.

CAMPUS Ministry: FCA focuses on equipping, enabling, empowering and encouraging student-athletes, coaches and adult leaders to impact and influence their campuses for Christ. This is accomplished through verified ministry that is initiated and led by student-athletes, sponsored by coaches, supported by staff, established on junior high, high school or college campuses and meets on a regular basis. There are four ministry types: Club Huddles, Team Huddles, Chaplain Huddles and Coaches Huddles.

CAMP Ministry: Camps are a time of "inspiration and perception." FCA provides athletes and coaches the opportunity to reach their God-given potential by offering comprehensive athletic, spiritual and leadership training in a camp environment. We create an athletic environment that produces spiritual transformation in the lives of coaches and athletes in a camp setting. These types of camps are: Sports camp, Leadership camp, Coaches camp, Power camp, Partnership camp, Team camp and International camp.

COMMUNITY Ministry: With the majority of athletes playing sports in the community (non-campus programs), FCA is ministering to the club, recreational and youth sports teams with the goal of establishing on-going ministry for coaches and athletes to compete for Jesus Christ with character, passion and excellence. This includes any off-campus opportunities such as Team Huddles, Chaplain Huddles, Coaches Huddles, Club Huddles and FCA Sports Teams.

What Is Our Purpose?

The mission of the 5th Quarter Football Club is to engage former players and football supporters in a life-long relationship with California Lutheran University and its football program.

What Are Our Values?

Friendship - We cherish and value the enduring friendships developed through participation in CLU's Football program.

Loyalty - We are loyal to one another, our coaches, the faculty and staff of California Lutheran University.

Commitment - We are committed to the mission of CLU and seek to support the University through our time, talent and treasure.

Tradition - Preserving the University's football history and traditions is at the very heart of the goals and objectives we seek to achieve as a support group for the University.

The Mystique of The Blue Slippers

By John Leubtow

Superstition and ritual in sports is found in all sports venues. It is generally something initially developed in hindsight, almost by accident and then called upon in future events. Such superstitions arise when an athlete or team has an exceptional performance and then tries to establish "cause and effect" by trying to link any odd or unusual circumstances at the time with the performance breakthrough itself. After this link is made in the mind of the athlete or athletes, through visualization or guided imagery, which today is the very basis of sports psychology, the athlete or athletes call upon this "mojo" before each competition.

The ritual mystique of the Blue Slippers at then California Lutheran College began early in the 1964 season when our three-year-old football program reached its lowest ebb. Going in to the season, the young Kingsmen had won eight and lost eight after two seasons of suspect competition. Now, after a stunning 13-8 win over La Verne College, CLC was in the midst of a depressing losing streak. We lost to Occidental 28-7, were blanked by Southern Utah 26-0 and humiliated by Claremont- Mudd 28-13.

The next game was to be our longest road trip to play a very tough Colorado College team, and it was their homecoming game. In early October, the team flew into Colorado Springs and was met by an old city transit bus. We were taken to the edge of town to a very tired, single-story motel. The extra bags were put in the garage storage area among beat-up furniture, lost-and-found articles and miscellaneous hotel supplies. It had been a very long day, and we were tired and did not have much spirit or enthusiasm. We had eaten on the plane so the next order of business was to get back on the bus and go five miles downtown where the campus was located for a practice session. Many players had to stand on the crowded bus.

The college was on a beautiful site and the leaves had begun to change on the trees. We got off the bus below campus at the stadium field level in our game uniforms. The air was crisp and clean. As we began to loosen up and go through a light practice, our spirits began to rise and a vocal camaraderie began to assert itself. We were not intimidated but were like school kids on an outing.

This scene was then overshadowed from above with band music and cheers. Colorado College was having its homecoming pep rally. Clearly we could hear from the PA system that "...this team from California is in the midst of a losing streak and we have beaten them before and we expect them to be an easy opponent." With that, we Kingsmen began to shout and cheer and the entire Colorado College student body and alumni came over to the edge of the stadium to see what was going on.

The next day was fabulous. Sunny, but cool. We cleaned out our rooms, loaded up our gear and got on the bus to go to the college to tape and dress for the game. That Saturday we controlled the Colorado College gridiron, and as we found out after our victory, the game was recorded for local television to be played that evening. For me personally it was my best single game at Cal Lutheran, with over 120 yards rushing, a long punt return and one touchdown. The final score was 29-6. The line of John Paris, Fred Kemp, Jim Tschida, Cary Washburn, Roger Young and Jerry Palmquist, and Safety / Wide Receiver Skip Mooney and others was stunning. Everything went right. The holes were there for us on offense and not for Colorado on Defense. After the losing games we experienced prior to this game and as history has shown, this was the turning point in our team's confidence and morale and set the stage for the Blue Slippers and the beginning of multiple years of winning seasons, national rankings and a national championship.

That Saturday evening some of us on the team found a "local watering hole" for a little "imbibing" and to watch ourselves on TV. Although we discovered that we were not so welcome sitting there imbibing and cheering ourselves on as we "devoured the locals", but, fear not, for when you enter an establishment with "the big boys"...nobody bothers you.

The next morning as we boarded the bus to depart...the Blue Slippers...entered our lives. We were all seated and ready to leave when Coach Shoup and Coach Garrison entered the bus laughing. Standing in front of the bus, Coach Shoup honored us with accolades about his pleasure with the victory and then he held up this scummy, dirty, disgusting old pair of women's slippers and told us the cleaning woman had found them in my room and wanted to return them to me. Everybody laughed, but with this bit of humorous injection from the coaches and the joy of a great upset victory under our belts, the appearance of the Blue Slippers became identified with a magic moment in our lives...a magic performance, and I became "the keeper of the Blue Slippers" until 1967.

The next week, CLC routed George Fox 59-0. We then won 33-9 over Cal Tech and 14-8 over a very tough Cal State team. The following week, we went to Pomona but the slippers stayed home and we lost 14-8. The legend began. The last game was our Homecoming, and we beat UC Riverside 7-0. After that for some strange reason they became like a "mystical good luck charm", even being hung up in the locker room with a white shoelace for players to touch or give homage to at game time. Then suddenly, they mysteriously vanished.

During the next 10 years, CLU won eight state championships and a national title in 1971. In 1975 the CLU Kingsmen were the #1 rated team in both the NAIA Division II and the NCAA Division III, and even today we virtually control our conference and are nationally ranked.

POSTSCRIPT

The Blue Slippers "good luck symbol" has been with the Kingsmen ever since they were found. Although no one is ready to "bet the farm" that they hold a mysterious power that transformed the Kingsmen into the powerhouse they have become, no one is also willing to question this possibility.

The legend will continue...

The Tradition Continues

Coach McEnroe on 2016 Season

In April 2007, Ben McEnroe (Class of '93) became the first alumni football coach to lead the Kingsmen. One of the primary goals McEnroe set for the program was to embrace the rich history and tradition of CLC/CLU football. Alumni players are welcomed inside the locker room before every game, and Coach Shoup addresses the team before the Homecoming contest, holding an undefeated record since the establishment of this tradition. At the conclusion of the 2007 football awards banquet, Coach Shoup presented Coach McEnroe with a “new” pair of Blue Slippers that the team has embraced, and the Kingsmen have won approximately 75% of their games since the Slippers returned to the locker room.

The last nine seasons have been the most successful in CLU’s NCAA era. During that span, the Kingsmen have won 74% of their games, including five Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SCIAC) championships and the first four NCAA playoff appearances in school history. CLU is 45-13 vs. the SCIAC since 2007, and has claimed more than half of the conference championships in the past decade.

In 2016, the Kingsmen hope to build on the dramatic defensive improvements of the previous season. That unit, led by Defensive Coordinator Scott “Woody” Beattie ’81, boasts a solid core of returners in the front seven. All-SCIAC Nose Guard De’Jon Rothschild will be reunited with Sophomore Xavier Fuery, forming the top interior tandem in the conference. Outside Linebacker Trevor Roe is a two-year starter, as is Safety Lucas Quinn and Cornerback Logan Sanders.

Offensively, the Kingsmen return their starting Quarterback for the first time since 2011. Junior Adam Friederichsen has a year under his belt after being pressed into service early in the first game of the 2015 campaign. He will be protected by a big, veteran Offensive Line which includes Seniors Matt Kubly, Jesse Cerdas, Ivan Malinarich-Campos, and Jared Smith, along Tackle with Junior Evan Brandt. Isaac Seymour returns for his third season in the backfield, and playmakers Kris Turner-Jackson and Keaton Cablay will lead the receiving corps.

The even-year schedule rotation brings the Kingsmen home to Rolland Stadium five times in nine games. While the team opens on the road at PLU on September 10, home dates for include Willamette for the home opener on September 17, night games against La Verne, Pomona-Pitzer, and Occidental, and a Homecoming tilt on Saturday afternoon, October 29 against the Panthers of Chapman University. The Kingsmen conclude the regular season with a road afternoon game at the University of Redlands on November 19 at 1:00 pm.

Alma Mater

Lyrics by: Orville Dahl Music by Rossini

Oh, summon your sons and daughters,
Your banners and flags unfold,
Call them to Alma Mater,
The violet and the gold,
California Lutheran,
College of our dreams,
Upon whose crested summits
Sunbeams dance and gleam.

Oh, summon your sons and daughters,
The 'circling hills enfold,
Near deep Pacific waters,
The violet and the gold.
Your love of freedom cherish,
Your love of truth prevails,
Your love of Christ merit,
Alma Mater, Hail! All Hail! All Hail!

Hail The Kingsmen

Hail Kingsmen! Hail Kingsmen!
Forward into battle go the Kingsmen!
Roaring out again to meet the foe.
Stand and cheer as they appear.
Every loyal son will bid them go.
Throughout the land our loyal band of Kingsmen raise their colors high for all to see. So! Give your all today -
And once again we'll say -
It's victory for CLU.
Hail Kingsmen! Hail Kingsmen!
Fight on to victory.

CLU Fight Song

Lyrics by: Robert Zimmerman & Elmer Ramsey

Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
On to victory show the C-L-U might!
Dig in and take that ball right down the field again, send the foe into flight!
We're here right behind you and our mind's made up to win!
So, go! go! go! go!
Go and get the score and our spirits will soar!
Let's count down! 10, 9, 8, cast off!
7, 6, 5, get set! 4, 3, 2, blast off!
Go! and we are off to win the vict'ry today!

The Davey Spurlock FIGHTING HEART AWARD 2016

DAVEY SPURLOCK

DAN RAMSEY

Having a "Fighting Heart" describes a person who faces adversity and hardship, but courageously and passionately casts off fear and doubt, while continuing to succeed. Such behavior initiates sparks of passion in others and inspires them to do the same.

At Cal Lutheran we first discovered such courage, inspiration and passion in the life of a student whose name we placed upon this honorable annual award of acknowledgment. His name is Davey Spurlock. He overcame overwhelming odds that threatened his life and future, yet went on to accomplish exceptional achievements with grit, passion and purpose in both football and law.

The recipient with whom we honor the year's Fighting Heart Award is:

Daniel Lee Ramsey '75

Dan is one of those exceptional people who set his own boundaries in pursuing his dreams and finding his purpose, even when those obstacles were placed in his path. From his musical abilities, to being elected Student Body President at CLU by his classmates, receiving the Most Valuable Player Football Award in high school as a halfback and being a productive member of Cal Lutheran's NAIA 1971 Championship team as a halfback, kicker and special team's punt return specialist. He has provided continuous support to the communities in which he has lived with his wife, Sheri, and his five children.

Dan Ramsey is and always will be... a Kingsmen.

In 2008, Dan suffered a devastating stroke at the age of 56. He did not crumble in despondency, but picked himself up and has amazingly continued to productively support not only the community in which he lives, but Cal Lutheran University.

This award to Daniel Lee Ramsey from the members of the 5th Quarter Football Club is given as our acknowledgment of his "Fighting Heart". As a true Kingsmen, he struggles with balances and pursues his passion for life with determination and purpose, supporting those things he finds of great value for his family, friends and community.

The Kallas Family Acknowledges With Honor
THE GALLOPING GREEK

THE MAN & THE LEGEND

Our family, including Jim, Darlean, James, Paris, Jacqueline and Kingsley arrived on the Cal Lutheran campus in 1961 and grew up as a family in this community. We know of not only our father's football exploits, but of his love of this community and the lives he has nurtured and been enriched by. Back when this University was just starting out with nothing but a few chicken coops, he still remembers beginning his first classes by addressing his students with... "Now, my little chickens...".

Memories often fade, but legends live on in the lives of those who were touched and are still being touched by his ministry.

And on this glorious day of celebration of 54 years of Cal Lutheran football, our father's words would sum it all up with...

GO, KINGSMEN!

Irresistible charm
THAT RESISTS THE ELEMENTS.

THE CANDYMAN COMETH

He's Our Kingsmen Commander of the Candy Toss

How sweet it is! When the Cal Lutheran football team scores, everybody's sweet tooth gets satisfied by Karsten Lundring, a 1965 graduate of Cal Lutheran who has supported Kingsmen football for 54 years. His tradition of hurling candy into the stands every time Cal Lutheran scores began over 30 years ago. "Cal Lutheran scored a touchdown and I had a pack of Candy with me that I threw, and it's been a tradition ever since."
