Tim Lins '85, M.A. '94

Tim Lins arrived at Cal Lutheran from Cerritos College in 1980 and made an immediate impact on the football field. At CLU, Lins was coached by Bob Shoup. "Bob was a master of the passing game," he has said. "I learned a lot about the passing game with him." During the 1981 and 1982 seasons, Lins caught 77 passes, scored 12 touchdowns and racked up 974 yard. His efforts helped lead those teams to back-to-back NAIA District 3 Championships.

Lins was named to the NAIA All-America First Team both years as a Kingsmen and is one of only three two-time NAIA All-America First Team selections in CLU history. Tim has spent 27 years of his life in coaching high school football. After spending ten years at Encino Crespi, he moved to Coach at Moorpark High School at which he has now coached for 17 years and won over 100 games, taken Moorpark to the playoffs 13 times, including four trips to the CIF finals. He was also the first NFL-ABC7 High School Coach of the Week honoree this past year. Tim recently retired from coaching football, but will remain on the Moorpark Staff as strength and conditioning coach.

Tim resides in Moorpark with his wife Mary-Therese. He has two sons. Jake and his wife, Alyssa, both CLU alumni, reside in Oak Park. Vernon also played football at CLU and resides in Thousand Oaks.

Mark Weber - Breakfast of Champions

Mark Weber '80. Weber earned All-Metropolitan Conference honors at Los Angeles Valley College at offensive guard. At Cal Lutheran, he was a two-time honorable mention Small College All-American at guard. He began his coaching career at offensive line and strength coach at his alma mater. Weber has been associated with some of the nation's top passing offenses and has been in 16 bowl games as a coach, which includes Utah State's offensive line and associate head coach where he coached ten linemen that earned All Mountain West honors for the Aggies. He spent six years at BYU helping the Cougars reach six bowl games and the 2007 Mountain West Championship. He also has extensive Pac-10 coaching experience. He coached the offensive line at UCLA for 7 years, helping guide the Bruins to five Bowl appearances, the 1999 Rose Bowl and two Pac 10 titles. After serving three seasons (1994-96) as the assistant head coach and offensive line coach at UNLV, In 1996, the Rebels ranked ninth in Division I-A in passing and the 1994 team was the Las Vegas Bowl champion. He has most recently coached offense and was Assistant Head Coach at Fresno State.

About the Cover

Theme for This Year's Reunion, California Lutheran Camelot (CLC).

The Golden Years of Kingsmen Football - 1974-1979

We look back historically to these six years as "A Period of Enormous Accomplishment" for a realm so young it can only be called mythical, magical, most full of adventures, knightly tournaments, dragons and, of course, Kingsmen warriors. To be a Kingsmen in this realm, as all of the warriors on the cover were, meant to be chosen by Sir. Shoup, who managed his realm by a Code of the Word, which meant that to be once chosen you would love one another and hold one another as brothers, practicing discipline and loyalty and honor, for from the love and sweetness of this table would be born in your hearts, great joy and friendship.

"DEEP IN THE VALLEYS OF UNFOLDING TIME,
BEYOND THE HILLS OF DOUBT LAY CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN CAMELOT.
ITS MISSION ROSE ABOVE THE FOREST OAKS, ITS BANNERS CAUGHT THE MORNING SUN.
INSIDE THE WALLS AROUND THEIR KING,
THE KINGSMEN / KNIGHTS AND SCHOLARS GATHERED,
EACH ONE PLEDGED TO HELP THE WEAK, TO MORTIFY THE PROUD, TO RIGHT & LOVE, DEFEND AND GLORIFY".

A Miracle Win in Camelot - 1977

The two players shown above are John Kindred, #16, Quarterback, and Harry Hedrick, #22, an all-purpose Running Back, both of whom were key players in CLC's "miracle win" 29-28 in the National Playoffs in 1977, one of the six "Golden Years" that were so exemplary for such a young school who was playing in the Western Football League for the first time. To help carry the theme of "Cal Lutheran Camelot", for these warriors, the black and white photo of these two players from that day holding up their "we are #1 finger," we not only colored and have placed a Royal Red "Kingsmen's Knightly Warrior Robe" on each of them and placed "the Kingsmen Sword" in Harry Hedrick's hand. They are standing on the Kingsmen field below Mt. Clef after the game that day against Linfield.

For those of you whom have never seen or held an authentic Medieval Sword, the original Kingsmen Sword that was purchased by the 1st Graduating Class of 1964 is on display here tonight for everyone to see and to hold.

By Don DeMars

The sword symbolizes power, protection, authority, strength, and courage; metaphysically, it represents discrimination and the penetrating power of the intellect... It is a symbol of knighthood and chivalry.

Cal Lutheran Has Become a West Coast “Cradle of Coaches”

The Cradle of Coaches is a nickname originally given to Miami University in Oxford, Ohio for producing many great Division I Football Coaches. Cal Lutheran has gained the same reputation and nickname as a lower division University that has produced and continues to produce outstanding football coaches in great numbers for all levels of this competitive sport, including high school, college and professional.

The coaches profiled on pages 6-8, are representative of the kinds of coaches that Cal Lutheran has produced and continues to be associated with. In fact, our own Coach Ben McEnroe is a prime example of the kind of coaches and how they apply themselves that have historically been produced through their nurturing at and through Cal Lutheran. It is the kind of coaching that teaches not only football skills, but values and purpose in life.

The Coaching Legacy from Cal Lu

The Cradle of Coaches is a nickname originally given to Miami University in Oxford, Ohio for producing many great Division I Football Coaches. Cal Lutheran has gained the same reputation and nickname as a lower Division University that has produced and continues to produce outstanding football coaches in great numbers for all levels of this competitive sport, including high school, college and professional.

The coaches profiled below are representative of the kinds of coaches that Cal Lutheran has produced and continues to be associated with. In fact, our own Coach Ben McEnroe is a prime example of the kind of coaches that have historically been produced through their nurturing at and through Cal Lutheran Coaches like Sir. Shoup. It is the kind of coaching that teaches not only football skills, but values and purpose in life.

Dave Aranda

Aranda graduated from Cal Lutheran in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in philosophy. In 2002, he earned his master's degree in interdisciplinary studies at Texas Tech.

Aranda spent two years as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at his alma mater, California Lutheran, where the Kingsmen led the conference in scoring defense and total defense. It was his second go-around with California Lutheran after serving as an assistant from 1996-99, while finishing his degree.

He is currently the defensive coordinator for the LSU Tigers.

Tom Herman

He was an all-conference wide Receiver at Cal Lutheran who earned his B.S. degree in business administration from Cal Lutheran in 1997, where he graduated cum laude and was a Presidential Scholarship recipient. Herman received his Masters Degree in Education from Texas.

Tom was not only the RECIPIENT OF THE BROYLES AWARD in 2014 given to one of over 1500 coaches representing all 117 Division One college football programs voted on their peers in the world of college football, and the five Broyles Award finalists are chosen by the tally of these ballots. From these five, Tom Herman was chosen.

Having been an offensive coordinator at Ohio State, Iowa State and other ranked schools, late in 2014, Tom Herman landed his “dream job” ...Head Coach at the University of Houston. In 2015, he proved he's one of the very best, in Houston's win over Florida State University in Peach Bowl 2015. Then just last year, he was drafted by the University of Texas to be their Head Football Coach.

Rod Marinelli

Marinelli began as an undergraduate at Utah in 1968, where he played offensive and defensive tackle. After military service in Vietnam, he attended Cal Lutheran with a physical education major and was a member of Bob Shiup's legendary 1971 NAIA National Championship team on which he was team captain and the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletes (NAIA) all-American offensive tackle.

Marinelli joined the Dallas Cowboys as the defensive line coach in 2013 but was elevated to coordinator in 2014. With only one All-Pro selection, linebacker Sean Lee, the cowboys finished 2016 with the NFL's top-ranked run defense and were fifth in points allowed at 19.1 per game. The Cowboys have extended the contract of defensive coordinator Rod Marinelli for another three years, according to multiple sources. Marinelli has 40 years of coaching experience, including 20 in the NFL.

“A school without football is in danger of deteriorating into a Medieval study hall.”

Vince Lombardi

Mike Sheppard

As a Kingsmen player, he was a member of CLU's 1971 NAIA National Championship Team and was chosen "Outstanding Lineman" in the championship game. He had 60 catches for 956 yards and seven touchdowns his final two years, earned 1971 and 1972 All District III honors and was named to the 1972 All-Lutheran College Team. He was elected to Cal Lutheran's Hall of Fame in 2006.

Mike has spent 38 years in coaching since leaving Cal Lutheran, 19 years in colleges and another 19 years in the National Football League. His College assignments included offensive coordinator of the San Diego Chargers, the Buffalo Bills and the New Orleans Saints in 2005. He was the wide receivers coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 2007 to 2010, was hired by the Jacksonville Jaguars to replace Mike Shula as quarterback coach in 2011 and then was moved to wide receivers coach to replace fired coach Johnny Cox, retiring from the Jacksonville Jaguars just a year ago. During all of these years of coaching football, his wife Cathy has been by his side. He is presently a Vice President of the 5th Quarter.

Cory Undlin

Cory Undlin was Coach Ben McEnroe's teammate during his playing years with the Kingsmen. Then after his playing years at Cal Lutheran from '90-'94 as a Defensive Safety and receiving All SCIAC Second Team Honors, he spent four years with Cal Lutheran's defensive coaching staff. He then accepted a graduate assistant coaching position at Fresno State under Coach Phil Hill who had been an Assistant Coach under Bill Belichick with the Cleveland Browns. This led to an Assistant Defensive Coaching position with Belichick and the New England Patriots in 2004 (the year they won Super Bowl XXXIX). This led to further opportunities with the Cleveland Browns as Defensive Quality Control Coach, the Defensive Backs Coach in 2009 and 2010. The very next year Undlin became the Denver Broncos defensive quality control coach and in the 2013-2014 season he reached the Super Bowl again, only this time serving as the head defensive backs coach. All of this success led to his most recent position as Defensive Backs Coach with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Jim Kunau

Kunau played football four years for California Lutheran University before embarking on a successful high school coaching career. He coached at Orange Lutheran from 1993-2011 and built the Orange Lutheran football program into a Southern Section powerhouse, earning the Coach of the Decade Award, the CIF Pac5 Coach of the Year and Orange County Register Coach of the Year honors while compiling an amazing record of 182-52-3 and 13 league championships in 19 years.

Jim Kunau also led the Temecula Rancho Christian football team to section and state titles, was chosen Cal-HiSports.com's state's small schools Coach of the Year for the 2016 season. Rancho Christian went 14-2 this past season, capturing the CIF-Southern Section Division 13 and CIF-State Division 6-AA crowns. This came in the school's fourth full varsity season and four years after canceling the 2012 season because of injuries and an over-ambitious schedule.

Kunau became just the second football coach in California history to lead at least two schools to CIF-State championships. He guided Orange Lutheran to the Division 2 state title in 2006.

"I love the community where we live and look forward to resuming my passion for building Champions for Life through football as a special privilege."

The Beginnings

tice in the bus affectionately called "The White Tornado" and driven by Norm Denison, was an adventure in survival in and of itself.

While the first team began its inaugural season with no home field, Orville Dahl, Bob Shoup, and representatives from the Los Angeles Times, were able to attract a new NFL team, the Dallas Cowboys, to the campus for their summer camp. Working with the Cowboys, the University was able to fast track the development of better locker room and training facilities as well as the creation of the first home field and adjacent practice fields on the north campus. For the next 26 years these two organizations, the CLU Kingsmen, and the Dallas Cowboys, grew into very competitive and nationally recognized teams. Each team reached the pinnacle of

By George Engdahl

When Richard Pederson, the farmer who owned the land on which CLU was developed, responded to Orville Dahl's, CLU's first president, knock on his door, in 1957, he said "I have been expecting you." In providing the land, Pederson's goal was simple: "I want to provide youth with the benefits of a Christian education in a day when spiritual values may well decide the course of history." Since that time CLU has never wavered. Expecting great things has always been at the core of CLU and it has remained steadfast in defining and being faithful to its spiritual values.

The first team - 1962 Kingsmen

Orville Dahl wasted little time in making the development of a first class athletic program a high priority in CLU's first year. He hired a visionary athletic director, Luther Schwich, and then set about the task of recruiting Coach Shoup as the University's founding football coach. Coach Shoup in turn brought with him Don Garrison, who was not only a successful and charismatic coach in his own right, but like Shoup a person of deep personal faith. The Shoups (Bob and Helen) arrived on the campus in the spring of 1962 and immediately set about the task of recruiting the first football team. Along the way he recruited a couple of faculty members, James Kallas, and Robert Hage to help him. Hage was also a Dean at the college. Both of these men became legends in their own right with regard to the development of the football program and the academic tradition of the University.

In the fall of 1962 the first scraggy recruits showed up. There were no fields on which to practice. The gym was under construction, so Beta Hall, the men's residence hall at the time, served as the locker room until Mountclef Hall was finished that same fall. We started with two a days. There was no hot water in the residence hall. The practice field was a small grassy area located where Alumni House (the Pederson home) is now located. Eventually we were able to practice at Camarillo High School. Getting to praccompetition by winning their own versions of the national championship. The Cowboys helped put the city of Dallas on the map, and Kingsmen football helped to promote and develop brand identity for this new fledgling university in the southwest. Tom Landry was a man of faith and high spiritual values as was coach Shoup and coach Garrison. In fact the "Letterman's Club" as such organizations were called in those days, was named Chi Alpha Sigma, "Christians, Athletes, Scholars." Perhaps Chi Alpha Sigma can become a part of the foundation, history and tradition of The 5th Quarter.

The first season (1962) was the launching of the CLU football program. It was a bare bones program. There was no nickname or fight song. Facilities were limited at best. There was no home field, or a strong student and community following. Those things were being developed on the fly, or sometime in the future. However, in the great CLU tradition, players, coaches and students didn't know what they didn't have. The team's 1962 record 3-4, wasn't as important as commitment and dedication of those first players and coaches. Most of the players came from very competitive high schools and community college programs. They were used to winning and having great facilities, traditions, a fight song, a band and cheerleaders backed by a large and faithful student body that had come to the same home field for years. In 1962 neither the Cowboys nor the Kingsmen had any of those amenities, but it didn't matter. CLU players and those students and faculty were affectionately called pioneers. They pioneered. That's what they did. They laid the groundwork, they had high expectations and they established the mantra for a winning tradition that continues to this day.

OUR MINISTRIES

COACHES Ministry: Coaches are the heart of FCA. Our philosophy in Coaches Ministry is to minister "to and through the coach" to see transformation. FCA ministers to coaches through Bible studies, prayer support, discipleship and mentoring, resources, outreach events and retreats.

CAMPUS Ministry: FCA focuses on equipping, enabling, empowering and encouraging student-athletes, coaches and adult leaders to impact and influence their campus for Christ. This is accomplished through certified ministry that is initiated and led by student-athletes, sponsored by coaches, supported by staff, established on junior high, high school or college campuses and meets on a regular basis. There are four ministry types: Club Huddles, Team Huddles, Chaplain Huddles and Coaches Huddles.

CAMP Ministry: Camps are a time of "inspiration and perspiration." FCA provides athletes and coaches the opportunity to reach their God-given potential by offering comprehensive athletic, spiritual and leadership training in a camp environment. We create an athletic environment that produces spiritual transformation in the lives of coaches and athletes in a camp setting. These types of camps are Sports camp, Leadership camp, Coaches camp, Power camp, Partnership camp, Team camp and International camp.

COMMUNITY Ministry: With the majority of athletes playing sports in the community (non-campus programs), FCA is ministering to the club, recreational and youth sports teams with the goal of establishing on-going ministry for coaches and athletes to compete for Jesus Christ with character, passion and excellence. This includes any off-campus opportunities such as Team Huddles, Chaplain Huddles, Coaches Huddles, Club Huddles and FCA Sports Teams.

What Is Our Purpose?

The mission of the 5th Quarter Football Club is to engage former players and football supporters in a life-long relationship with California Lutheran University and its football program.

What Are Our Values?

Friendship - We cherish and value the enduring friendships developed through participation in CLU's Football program.

Loyalty - We are loyal to one another, our coaches, the faculty and staff of California Lutheran University.

Commitment - We are committed to the mission of CLU and seek to support the University through our time, talent and treasure.

Tradition - Preserving the University's football history and traditions is at the very heart of the goals and objectives we seek to achieve as a support group for the University.

Once a Kingsmen, always a Kingsmen!

CONGRATULATIONS TO CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN UNIVERSITY FOR 55 YEARS OF KINGSMEN FOOTBALL

...and a very special tribute to our own Dr. Jim Kallas, Professor, Pastor, Mentor, Coach and Galloping Greek Extraordinaire.

He's a lion. A warrior. An artist. A fighter. He's tender. Compassionate. Wise. A true gentleman. And inspiring. He's the blended composite of love and strength. The greatest gift he ever gave us as students was simply letting us be ourselves and to "go for it" with a tremendous amount of pride and enthusiasm and devotion.

Even in his eighties, he's preserved his childlike wonder, his optimism and his search for meaning in the world. He constantly reminds us that you never give up. Most especially when your quest is to make the world a sunnier and safer place.

The Mystique of The Blue Slippers

By John Leubtow

Superstition and ritual in sports is found in all sports venues. It is generally something initially developed in hindsight, almost by accident and then called upon in future events. Such superstitions arise when an athlete or team has an exceptional performance and then tries to establish "cause and effect" by trying to link any odd or unusual circumstances at the time with the performance breakthrough itself. After this link is made in the mind of the athlete or athletes, through visualization or guided imagery, which today is the very basis of sports psychology, the athlete or athletes call upon this "mojo" before each competition.

The ritual mystique of the Blue Slippers at then California Lutheran College began early in the 1964 season when our three-year-old football program reached its lowest ebb. Going in to the season, the young Kingsmen had won eight and lost eight after two seasons of suspect competition. Now, after a stunning 13-8 win over La Verne College, CLC was in the midst of a depressing losing streak. We lost to Occidental 28-7, were blanked by Southern Utah 26-0 and humiliated by Claremont-Mudd 28-13.

The next game was to be our longest road trip to play a very tough Colorado College team, and it was their homecoming game. In early October, the team flew into Colorado Springs and was met by an old city transit bus. We were taken to the edge of town to a very tired, single-story motel. The extra bags were put in the garage storage area among beat-up furniture, lost-and-found articles and miscellaneous hotel supplies. It had been a very long day, and we were tired and did not have much spirit or enthusiasm. We had eaten on the plane so the next order of business was to get back on the bus and go five miles downtown where the campus was located for a practice session. Many players had to stand on the crowded bus.

The college was on a beautiful site and the leaves had begun to change on the trees. We got off the bus below campus at the stadium field level in our game uniforms. The air was crisp and clean. As we began to loosen up and go through a light practice, our spirits began to rise and a vocal camaraderie began to assert itself. We were not intimidated but were like school kids on an outing.

This scene was then overshadowed from above with band music and cheers. Colorado College was having its homecoming pep rally. Clearly we could hear from the PA system that "...this team from California is in the midst of a losing streak and we have beaten them before and we expect them to be an easy opponent." With that, we Kingsmen began to shout and cheer and the entire Colorado College student body and alumni came over to the edge of the stadium to see what was going on.

The next day was fabulous. Sunny, but cool. We cleaned out our rooms, loaded up our gear and got on the bus to go to the college to tape and dress for the game. That Saturday we controlled the Colorado College gridiron, and as we found out after our victory, the game was recorded for local television to be played that evening. For me personally it was my best single game at Cal Lutheran, with over 120 yards rushing, a long punt return and one touchdown. The final score was 29-6. The line of John Paris, Fred Kemp, Jim Tschida, Cary Washburn, Roger Young and Jerry Palmquist, and Safety / Wide Receiver Skip Mooney and others was stunning. Everything went right. The holes were there for us on offense and not for Colorado on Defense. After the losing games we experienced prior to this game and as history has shown, this was the turning point in our team's confidence and morale and set the stage for the Blue Slippers and the beginning of multiple years of winning seasons, national rankings and a national championship.

That Saturday evening some of us on the team found a "local watering hole" for a little "imbibing" and to watch ourselves on TV. Although we discovered that we were not so welcome sitting there imbibing and cheering ourselves on as we "devoured the locals", but, fear not, for when you enter an establishment with "the big boys"...nobody bothers you.

The next morning as we boarded the bus to depart...the Blue Slippers...entered our lives. We were all seated and ready to leave when Coach Shoup and Coach Garrison entered the bus laughing. Standing in front of the bus, Coach Shoup honored us with accolades about his pleasure with the victory and then he held up this scummy, dirty, disgusting old pair of women's slippers and told us the cleaning woman had found them in my room and wanted to return them to me. Everybody laughed, but with this bit of humorous injection from the coaches and the joy of a great upset victory under our belts, the appearance of the Blue Slippers became identified with a magic moment in our lives...a magic performance, and I became "the keeper of the Blue Slippers" until 1967.

The next week, CLC routed George Fox 59-0. We then won 33-9 over Cal Tech and 14-8 over a very tough Cal State team. The following week, we went to Pomona but the slippers stayed home and we lost 14-8. The legend began. The last game was our Homecoming, and we beat UC Riverside 7-0. After that for some strange reason they became like a "mystical good luck charm", even being hung up in the locker room with a white shoelace for players to touch or give homage to at game time. Then suddenly, they mysteriously vanished.

During the next 10 years, CLU won eight state championships and a national title in 1971. In 1975 the CLU Kingsmen were the #1 rated team in both the NAIA Division II and the NCAA Division III, and even today we virtually control our conference and are nationally ranked.

POSTSCRIPT

The Blue Slippers "good luck symbol" has been with the Kingsmen ever since they were found. Although no one is ready to "bet the farm" that they hold a mysterious power that transformed the Kingsmen into the powerhouse they have become, no one is also willing to question this possibility.

The legend will continue...

The Tradition Continues

Coach McEnroe on 2017 Season

In April 2007, Ben McEnroe (Class of '93) became the first alumni football coach to lead the Kingsmen. One of the primary goals McEnroe set for the program was to embrace the rich history and tradition of CLC/CLU football. Alumni players are welcomed inside the locker room before every game, and Coach Shoup addresses the team before the Homecoming contest, holding an undefeated record since the establishment of this tradition. At the conclusion of the 2007 football awards banquet, Coach Shoup presented Coach McEnroe with a "new" pair of Blue Slippers that the team has embraced, and the Kingsmen have been a perennial contender for SCIAC championships and playoff births ever since.

The last decade has been the most successful in CLU's NCAA era. During that span, the Kingsmen have won five Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SCIAC) championships and made the first four NCAA playoff appearances in school history. CLU has claimed more than half of the conference championships in the past decade.

2017 brings a great deal of excitement as the Kingsmen welcome fifteen returning starters. Second-year Offensive Coordinator Anthony Lugo will have Senior Quarterback Adam Friederichsen, the 2016 Robert F. Shoup Most Valuable Player, back for his third season as starting QB. The wide receiver group is deep, fast, and talented, led by SR Aaron Lacombe and SR Wendell O'Brien on the outside. Talented Buena High School and Ventura College product Chris Beeson is looking for a breakout campaign at tailback, while returning starter Diego Hernandez continues the great tradition of tight end play at CLU.

On Defense, coordinator Scott "Woody" Beattie returns one of the most talented groups of defensive backs in recent history. Sophomore Obasi Dees was a first team all-SCIAC selection as a Freshman in 2016, while classmates Jerome Hull and Cortez Espinoza also return as starters in the secondary. Talented Idaho State transfer Lorenzo Terry brings speed and experience to that young and talented group in the defensive backfield. Senior Linebackers Nick Gordon and Acquarey Eddington will anchor the middle, while Tony Carlsen will move to outside linebacker for 2017.

The odd-year schedule rotation has the Kingsmen hosting four contests at Rolland Stadium. The season opener will feature PLU coming to Thousand Oaks on September 9th for a 7:00 pm kickoff. The SCIAC schedule includes a tough CMS team for Homecoming on October 14th (1:00 pm), a challenging road trip to Chapman on Saturday night, October 28th, and the season finale against the Bulldogs from Redlands on November 11th at 1:00 pm for Senior Day.

Alma Mater

Lyrics by: Orville Dahl Music by Rossini

Oh, summon your sons and daughters,
Your banners and flags unfold,
Call them to Alma Mater,
The violet and the gold,
California Lutheran,
College of our dreams,
Upon whose crested summits
Sunbeams dance and gleam.

Oh, summon your sons and daughters,
The 'circling hills enfold,
Near deep Pacific waters,
The violet and the gold.
Your love of freedom cherish,
Your love of truth prevails,
Your love of Christus merit,
Alma Mater, Hail! All Hail! All Hail!

Hail The Kingsmen

Hail Kingsmen! Hail Kingsmen!
Forward into battle go the Kingsmen!
Roaring out again to meet the foe.
Stand and cheer as they appear.
Every loyal son will bid them go.
Throughout the land our loyal band of Kingsmen raise their colors high for all to see. So! Give your all today -
And once again we'll say -
It's victory for CLU.
Hail Kingsmen! Hail Kingsmen!
Fight on to victory.

CLU Fight Song

Lyrics by: Robert Zimmerman & Elmer Ramsey

Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
On to victory show the C-L-U might!
Dig in and take that ball right down
the field again, send the foe into flight!
We're here right behind you and our mind's made up to win!
So, go! go! go! go!
Go and get the score and our spirits will soar!
Let's count down! 10, 9, 8, cast off!
7, 6, 5, get set! 4, 3, 2, blast off!
Go! and we are off to win the vict'ry today!

Don DeMars Above and Beyond Award

This award is presented to an individual the 5th Quarter Football Club has deemed to have gone ABOVE AND BEYOND in the support of the efforts of the 5th Quarter Football Club and Cal Lutheran Football. The award bears the name of the first recipient to earn this award because of his exemplary support in both areas over the years. It is a pleasure to present the 2017 award to Ernie Sandlin—Director of Marketing at University Village Thousand Oaks, California.

Ernie Sandlin (Class of '81)

Far removed from his days of playing nose tackle for the Kingsmen, Ernie now serves as Director of Marketing at University Village Thousand Oaks retirement community, where he is one of the first people a prospective resident meets. In his official capacity, Ernie builds relationships with those weighing their senior living options and stays close to residents once they move into their new home at University Village. In fact, outside of working hours, he's a full-fledged member in a resident tennis group that plays weekly.

Before coming to work at University Village in 2004, Ernie spent nearly two decades in university enrollment management beginning with his beloved Cal Lu where he was also blessed with the opportunity to coach football for the Kingsmen.

In addition to his professional experience, Ernie serves as president of the board for the Kingsmen Shakespeare Company and is a member of Holy Cross Catholic Church in Moorpark, the Rotary Club of Thousand Oaks and the 5th Quarter Football Club Board of Directors.

Ernie and his wife Jean (Kelso) Sandlin, Class of 83 and a professor of Communications at CLU, live in Moorpark, CA.

There is a light in this world, a healing spirit more powerful than any darkness we may encounter. It emerges through the lives of people who hear a call and answer in extraordinary ways. For this family, one of these individuals is our father, Jim Kallas.

The KALLAS FAMILY thanks you for loving and honoring the ONE-AND-ONLY-GALLOPING-GREEK as we love and honor all of you.

God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.
2 Corinthians 9:8.

THE CANDYMAN COMETH

He's Our Kingsmen Commander of the Candy Toss

How sweet it is! When the Cal Lutheran football team scores, everybody's sweet tooth gets satisfied by Karsten Lundring, a 1965 graduate of Cal Lutheran who has supported Kingsmen football for 54 years. His tradition of hurling candy into the stands every time Cal Lutheran scores began over 30 years ago. "Cal Lutheran scored a touchdown and I had a pack of Candy with me that I threw, and it's been a tradition ever since."

I'm actually saving for my retirement.

A smart long-term plan for your future means more healthy, happy living, now.

At University Village Thousand Oaks, adding more to your retirement lifestyle means saving more, too. Rather than fluctuating costs and time-consuming chores, we offer on-site services designed to help you live better, for longer — housecleaning, multiple restaurant dining venues, all exterior and interior maintenance, wellness programs, transportation, 24-hour security services and more. Plus, access to long-term care is included, if you ever need it, with a repayable entrance fee — all for a lot less than you might think.

Don't settle for less.

Call 1-866-952-9177 today to request your free comparison chart, and see how much more you'll get out of life at University Village.
